Now And Then...

So much that happens at Stoughton High School could be straight out of a movie script. Drama, comedy, action, it's all here in these hallways. Laughter, tears, fury...and we haven't even gotten through A Hour! For some of us, the 2003 - 2004 school year has been the most important act in our lives. So, without further ado... Knights, Camera, Action!!!

Time is passing,
Passing by fast.
I try to hold onto every second,
Like it is the last.
But time is also ending,
A very special time to me.
This year I am graduating,
And next year I am free.
The year is half over,
But still I think of it as half full.
There are still more memories I need to make
Before I head to a new school.
I know what lies ahead of me,
Is a challenge that I will have to face.
But even when I do leave,
I know that I'll miss this place.

Stougton's man in the middle

■ Roland Millien hopes to lead the Black Knights to places they have never been before.

By Win Bates
ENTERPRISE STAFF WRITER

STOUGHTON — Roland Millien has always had lofty aspirations when it comes to his basketball career, and those lofty aspirations this season concern his far, far thinks his Stoughton High School team can go.

Stoughton has never gotten past the quarterfinals of the South Sectional boys basketball tournament during John Douglas' quarter century as coach of the Black Knights, but both Douglas and his 6-foot-6 star center hope the team can advance further this season. Both also want to see the Black Knights win a Hockomock League title this season.

"We've got, lost one game so far and that was at Franklin, and we're looking forward to getting them back on our court the next time," said Millien. "For some reason, their court was pretty sloppy when we played there, and they didn't fall as much as we did. It left them open for some 3-point shots and they hit them. I think we can beat them like next time in our gym.

"Our first goal is to win the league. That's something none of us has ever done, so that's our goal for the regular season. Then, we're hoping to go farther in the tournament than we've gone in the past. That's something we've talked about, and that's what we'll be shooting for a few weeks from now."

Millien averaged 18 points and 19 rebounds a game, the second straight season he has averaged well over 20 points a game, and he scores those points in a variety of ways. He can go to the basket on the dribble, he can mid-range jump shot and take it outside for a few 3-pointers, in addition to the damage he does on the offensive boards.

"I think my best shot is a 15-foot jumper, but I can take it further outside if I have to and hit a three," said Millien. "I shoot quite a few threes for a center. I also like rebounding, and I get quite a few points inside on rebounds. I've always taken the approach that I have to get every rebound I can. [illegible] ways think it's mine.

Despite the points he scores, and Millien is closing in on 1,000 for his career, it isn't shooting or scoring that he considers the best part of his game. Nor does he consider rebounding his strongest suit.

"I think my awareness on the court is the best thing I do," said Millien. "When I'm double-teamed, I think I'm pretty good at finding whoever is open."

Millien credits two coaches with a lot of his development as a basketball player.

"I play in the summer for Paul Wisdom with the Coastal Pops, and he and Mr. Douglas have done a lot to help me become the player I am right now," said Millien. "I owe them both a lot."

Millien was one of four returning starters for the Black Knights this season, one big reason why Stoughton figured to be a top team in Div. 2 South as well as in the Hockomock League.

Senior Eric Gomes and junior Brian Small provide help for Millien. We've played pretty well so far, and I see no reason that can't continue."

Millien believes the Hockomock League championship is [illegible] more.

"Eric Gomes has been on just about every team I've ever been on since I started playing when I was five years old. That's what I'll miss when this is over."

Millien isn't sure where he will play basketball next year but he hopes to eventually land at a Div. 1 college.

"That's what I've always wanted," said Millien. "I don't care whether it's a big Div. 1 school or a small one. I might end up going to prep school for a year and then go to a Div. 1 school."

Millien, who has a 1[illegible] average, [illegible] Douglas thinks his grade might be better suited for one of the many good Div. 2 programs in New England.

"I think Division 1 might be a bit of a stretch for Roland because the Division 1 schools are looking for more size than their players that are doing the things that he will likely be doing at the college level," said Douglas. "I think he would be a very good Division 2 player."

For right now, though, the [illegible]

STOUGHTON SENIOR Roland Millien is closing in on the 1,000 point mark for his career with the Black Knights.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Dear Members of the Class of 2004

As Superintendent of Schools, I wish to congratulate the members of the Class of 2004 upon successful completion of your K-12 school career.

Throughout your school years you have represented the Stoughton Public Schools with excellence in all areas of our school program.

Your parents and teachers must also be congratulated. Their love, understanding and guidance have been instrumental in the achievement of your goals.

Personally, in this my final year as your Superintendent of Schools, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Class of 2004 for the support and cooperation you afforded me. Your efforts have made our Stoughton family bonds stronger!

Sincerely,

Anthony L. Sarno, Jr.

Dear Members of the Class of 2004,

Congratulations on your graduation from Stoughton High School. You have achieved the goal that has seemed most important in your life. It is now that the dreams of your past become the reality of your future.

You are about to advance another step on the ladder of education. Education in the future, even as in the past, is one of the most important factors in a successful life. In an age such as the one in which you live, with an ever-increasing knowledge of all things, it is most important, in fact, it is essential that you have an education adequate for meeting the demands of the future.

Occupational standards are higher today than ever before; therefore, a greater percent of educated people are needed to occupy these positions in industry. Your mental ability and formal education determine your financial status in this age.

Your minds mature through education. That which you have gained here at Stoughton High School has helped in building the foundation of your character. Remember the values you've learned from your parents and teachers - respect, perseverance and integrity. In the past four years, you've gained the academic skills that will guide you in your next endeavor. But more importantly, you have learned who you are and who you can be. A high school diploma is a great achievement - but the true value of your education is not in a piece of paper - it is in the person you have become.

On behalf of the Stoughton School Committee, best wishes for continued success in all that you endeavor!

Sincerely,

Allan W. Mills, Chairman

Dear members of the Class of 2004:

Congratulations on achieving the first goal on what I believe to be a lifelong journey. Not only is education important to you personally, it is also the staple of a successful society, and it does not end at graduation from high school. Most of your life to this point has been spent in school, now you have the opportunity to build on that foundation and become the productive citizens that I know you will be.

"I have known Tony Sarno for nearly 3 decades, as a classroom teacher, Assistant Principal, High School Principal, and the last decade as Superintendent of Schools, and sometimes as his reluctant golfing partner. His prodigious energy and dedication to the children of Stoughton is legendary. He seems to be everywhere. I recall a humorous video made when he was High School Principal that had Tony flying like Superman high above SHS. He was in person a super man, a super individual, and a super educator to the children, staff and community and Stoughton was the richer for knowing him.
—Dr. Fisher, Principal, South School

" There has not been a more influential person on my career than Mr. Sarno. His dedication to all aspects of this school system is both prevalent and contagious. He will be sorely missed at all of the sporting events at Stoughton High School. On behalf of all of the Student/Athletes, Coaches and staff, we thank him for his support."
—Mr. Gannon, Athletic Director

I want to thank Mr. Sarno for all he taught me as a student, and for all he did as principal and superintendent. He is truly the number one supporter of Stoughton High athletics and Stoughton Public Schools!"
- Mr. Mark, Social Studies. OMS

Above: Mr. Gannon, Mr. Burke, and Mr. Sarno survey the field before the game. Right: Check out Mr. Sarno in 1971.

"Thanks to Mr. Sarno's continual support and encouragement and his assistance in applying for the Enhanced School Health Services Grant, we have been able to maintain Nursing Staff and provide our students and staff with the exceptional health care they deserve. To paraphrase Dr. Jocelyn Elders, former Surgeon General of the United States, a child must learn to be healthy and must be healthy to learn. We thank you from the bottom of our hearts for giving our students that opportunity.
- Pat Small. R.N. Director of Nurses

"Senior's last day - the green house - the garden hose. We sure had fun."
- Mr. Paul Monti, Science Teacher

We'll miss his wisdom - this man he is so wise,
More, we'll miss his efforts - so hard this man tries,
But the most we'll miss about him,
Are his KID-DECORATED TIES

KIDS - That's why he works such long, long days,
Wearing the child-filled ties that we praise.

"You can't judge a book by its cover," they say,
But you can judge a man by the TIES HE DISPLAYS!

THANK YOU FOR THE MANY EXTRAORDINARY WAYS IN WHICH YOU HAVE SHOWN YOUR CONCERN AND CARING FOR STOUGHTON'S KIDS.

To The Class of 2004: June 3, 2004

From the first time I first spoke to you as your Principal, in September of 2003, I knew you were a special class. As I said that day, the members of the Senior Class are the role models for the rest of the school, and you are true leaders for your peers. From my previous three years as an Assistant Principal, I have watched you grow and mature and I know you are ready for the challenges that the future will bring.

Take what you have learned at Stoughton High and build a better future for you, your family and your community. I Thank you for what you have contributed to Stoughton High School, for the kindness and respect you have always shown me, and I wish you a happy and productive future.

Best of luck,
